Admissions Requirements

- minimum undergraduate grade of “B” average
- a statement of academic and professional interests and concerns relevant to Social Justice Education; list at the top of the statement one (or more) SJE faculty member(s) whose work is relevant to your interests and concerns
- two letters of reference: at least one university reference on your academic capacity; second letter can be a professional reference on your work background
- a sample of written work related to social justice education (previous course paper, research or community report, etc.)
- M.Ed. applicants must have the equivalent of 12 months total of professional experience (full-time or part-time employment, community work, co-op or internship, research, etc.)

Program Length

10 half-courses (M.Ed. Option IV) degree program to be completed from 1.5 years (full-time) to 3 years (part-time)

Degree Cost for domestic (non-visa) students Minimum Degree Fee (1.5 years) = $13,294.50 based on 2012-13 academic year

Financial Aid for domestic (non-visa) students see OISE Student Services Office for more information
- Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP)
- UofT Advance Planning for Students (UTAPS)
- Ontario Work Study Program
- OISE Bursary Program
- Emergency Loans

Degree Requirements and Options

- M.Ed. students in Social Justice Education must take at least 5 half-courses in SJE Department
- M.Ed. students may be interested in a Collaborative Program to supplement their academic preparation in SJE (options include Aboriginal Health, Sexual Diversity Studies, Women and Gender Studies, and Workplace Learning and Social Change)
- Required Course: Major Concepts and Issues in Education (HSJ1903H)
- Recommended Course: Integrating Research and Practice in Social Justice Education (HSJ1906H)

Department Social Justice Education (SJE) | OISE
University of Toronto
252 Bloor Street West, 12th Floor, Toronto, ON M5S 1V6

department website: www.oise.utoronto.ca/sje for application submission: www.oise.utoronto.ca/ro for Admissions and Program Inquiries, contact:

Ms. Sezen Atacan, SJE Graduate Student Liaison
e-mail: sezen.atan@utoronto.ca, phone: (416) 978-0397
Dr. Tanya Titchkosky, SJE Admissions Chair (during 2015-16 year)
e-mail: tanya.titchkosky@utoronto.ca, phone: (416) 978-0451

Sample Course Options in SJE Department

- Centering Indigenous-Settler Solidarity in Theory & Activism
- Critical Issues in Education: Philosophical Perspectives
- Cultural Knowledges, Representation and Colonial Education
- Cultural Production of the Self as a Problem in Education
- Democratic Approaches to Pedagogy
- Doing Disability in Theory and Everyday Life
- Education and Popular Culture
- Environmental Sustainability and Social Justice
- Feminist Criticism and Pedagogy
- Feminism and Poststructuralism in Education
- Foucault and Research in Education and Culture
- Freedom and Authority in Education
- Indigenous Knowledge and Decolonization
- Introduction to Philosophy of Education
- Introduction to Sociology in Education
- Marginality and the Politics of Resistance
- Migration and Globalization
- Modernity & Postmodernity in Social Thought and Education
- Modernization, Development and Education in Africa
- Principles of Anti-Racism Education
- Race, Indigenous Citizenship and Self-Determination
- Race, Space and Citizenship
- Racism, Violence, and the Law
- Social Relations of Cultural Production in Education
- Sociology of Race and Ethnicity
- Spirituality and Schooling
- Technology in Education: Philosophical Issues
- The School and the Community
- Theorizing Asian Canada

What can you do with a Master's degree in Social Justice Education?

- assume responsibilities in a social justice area in schools and school boards
- undertake labour and community education and research
- work in community organizations on issues of social change
- pursue further graduate studies in humanities and social sciences and in professional programs, such as education, law, and social work