Deathscapes is a virtual project that maps state violence against Indigenous and racialized groups. Working across the U.S., Canada, Australia, and the U.K./E.U., we analyze deaths in police cells, prisons, detention centres, and other custodial sites. As well, we examine advocacy and activism that aims to end racial violence.

Sponsored by the Centre for Integrative Anti-Racism Studies and the Department of Social Justice Education, OISE, U of T
Contact: ea.sje@utoronto.ca