

Works-In-Progress Lecture Series

Friday
January 22
2-3:20pm
OISE 6-252

brought to you by the TPS Student Association

The TPS Student's Association is hosting the first of our four-part Works in Progress lecture and discussion series this Friday, January 22. The Works-In-Progress Winter Lecture Series is a great opportunity for graduate students and faculty to present their current research projects to their colleagues in Theory and Policy Studies here at OISE. Intended as a casual lecture followed by a meet and greet session, these talks offer a great place to meet other people who are also studying and working here at OISE and hear about the exciting scholarly work happening in our department. They will be held on the third Friday of every month; snacks and refreshments will be served.

January: History of Education Session

This month we are pleased to present two upper level doctoral students from the History of Education program in Theory and Policy Studies:

Alison Norman will present on Environmental History
Jennifer Bonnell will present on Aboriginal History

Come learn about the exciting research is going on in the History Program at OISE! Snacks will be provided. Everyone is welcome!

Coming Soon!

February Works-In-Progress Lecture Series: Philosophy of Education
TPS Workshops: February 6th

March Feminist Film Month (Screening Feminist Films every Monday Night!)
Works-In-Progress Lecture Series: Educational Administration

April Works-In-Progress Lecture Series: Higher Education
Theory and Policy Studies Ol' Fashion Spring Social Bowling Party!