Leadership on the line: How to shine in challenging situations

#leadershipshine

@JimEarlyYears

Jim Grieve, Assistant Deputy Minister
Early Years Division
Ministry of Education
May 7, 2014
Welcome to Scott Wade's Dirty Car Art

NEW GALLERY,
Easier to navigate & NEW IMAGES!

gallery

Check out the latest press & news

Tell Scott what you think of the new look & gallery...
email Scott

Want Scott at your event?
Need a fresh PR idea?
inquiries

A little info about the artwork on this site:
Like any reasonably creative and curious human, Scott can't resist a dirty rear car window. We suspect that Scott started off with clever sayings, like, “wash me.” Probably his first image was the ubiquitous smiley face. Unlike most folks however, Scott lives on a mile and a half of dirt road - caliche, as the locals call it, road-base: a blend of limestone dust and gravel and clay. Driving over this surface results in a fine, white dust that billows up behind any vehicle driven faster than a galloping turtle, coating the rear window. Being an experienced artist (and let's face it, a little different), it wasn't long before Scott was experimenting with techniques to achieve these amazingly detailed...
Work load

Work/life balance

Staff relationships

Quality
workload
work/life balance
the imperfect balance
Eight cups of coffee ≠ eight hours of sleep
staff relationships
Motivation
Conversation is a meeting of minds with different memories and habits
quality
How Does Learning Happen?
Ontario’s Pedagogy for the Early Years

A resource about learning through relationships for those who work with young children and their families
Pedagogy

Understanding of how learning takes place

Philosophy and practice support the understanding of learning
Understanding of Children as Competent, Curious, Capable of Complex Thinking, Rich in Potential

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Child &amp; Family Programs</th>
<th>Child Care</th>
<th>Kindergarten</th>
<th>Elementary</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Responsive Relationships</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Learning through Exploration, Play, and Inquiry</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Educators as Co-learners</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Environment as Third Teacher</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Pedagogical Documentation</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Reflective Practice and Collaborative Inquiry</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Belonging | Well-Being | Engagement | Expression

Foundations for Learning and Development

ELECT GUIDING PRINCIPLES
“Only three things happen naturally in organizations: friction, confusion, and underperformance. Everything else requires leadership.”

Peter Drucker
@JimEarlyYears