Dr. Francisco Villegas
ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF SOCIOLOGY, KALAMAZOO COLLEGE
Francisco J. Villegas is an Assistant Professor of Sociology in the Department of Anthropology and Sociology at Kalamazoo College. He completed his PhD in Sociology of Education in 2014 at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education of the University of Toronto. He also holds an M.A. in Mexican American Studies from San Jose State University.

Currently, his work analyzes the development of a County ID as a means of addressing the exclusions written into driver’s license and ID policy in Michigan. In this work, he is particularly interested in how undocumented migrants organize to pursue local-level policies to create a small buffer from punitive laws at the state and federal levels. This work was preceded by his doctoral dissertation which examined the ways access to schooling for undocumented students at the Toronto District School Board was conceptualized by different social actors including trustees, Board administrators, and grassroots activists.
