Table of Contents

Introduction
Educating for Global Citizenship in a Changing World: Perspectives and Classroom Practices
Mark Evans and Cecilia Reynolds
- Professional Learning Orientation: A Circle of Learners
- What Is Citizenship? What Is Citizenship Education?
- Classroom Practices
- Impact of Global Developments
- The Research Base for This Resource
- How this Resource Is Organized

Chapter 1
Exploring the Dimensions of Global Citizenship
Jill Goodreau, Dick Holland, and David Montemurro
- Connecting to the Global
- Taking a Global Perspective (What’s in Your Coffee?)
- Images of a Global citizen: Building a Definition

Chapter 2
Creating an Inclusive Classroom Climate with a Global Perspective
Penny Ballagh and Karen Sheppard
(with Dave Brinton, John Kirk, Carolyn Brown, and Deborah Yuen)
- History of your Name
- Life Map
- Every’s and Only’s

Chapter 3
Examining Social Justice and Our Human Rights: Developing the Skills of Critical Inquiry
Terezia Zoric, David Ast, Heather Lang, Maria Vamvalis, Maria Weber, and Moira Wong
- Children’s Rights as Human Rights, the UNDHR, and the UNCRC
- Analyzing Canada’s Immigration and Refugee Protection Act

Chapter 4
Investigating Public Issues of Global Importance
John Myers, Jenifer Borda, Dawn Legrow, and Rachel Powell
- Using “Academic Controversy” to Investigate “Does the world need an international body for resolving global issues?”
- Using “Complex Instruction” to Investigate “The Politics of Food”
Chapter 5
Connecting Moral Issues of Global Importance to Students’ Lives
Katherine Bellomo, Stephan Latour, Nancy Steele, and Margaret Wells
• Deconstructing “Race”
• World History of Racism in Minutes
• Facing History and Ourselves

Chapter 6
Building Collaborative Partnerships for Enquiry and Engagement in Global Citizenship
Rosemary Evans, Reg Hawes, Rebecca Levere, Lesley Monette, and Nadine Mouftah
• Organizing a Symposium
• Civic Action Inquiry Project
• Global Citizenship Lab: Testing the Limits

Chapter 7
Getting Involved as a Global Citizen: Taking Action for a Change
Michael Charles, Kevin Julyan, and Dana Wallace
• Human Rights: Myth or Reality?
• Human Rights Violations: A Multi-Media Presentation
• Taking Action Against Child Labour: Developing a School-Wide Initiative

Chapter 8
Infusing Perspectives of Global Citizenship Through School-Wide Activities
Pat De Caria, Wayne Garthson, John Lettieri, Brian O’Sullivan, and Vince Sicilia
• The Global Co-op Program and the Global Education School Certificate
• Global Speaker/Global Career Days
• School/Community/Global Partnerships

Chapter 9
Assessing Student Learning and Global Citizenship
Laurie Kuchirka and Frank Taylor
(with Michael Farley, Donna McKinnon, and Helen Raso)
• Thinking about Assessment and Global Citizenship
• Assessing for Student Success
• Assessment Tools and Their Use
• Performance (Authentic) Tasks
• Rating Scales and Rubrics
• Reflection
• Tests and Portfolios

Chapter 10
Web Resources for the Classroom
Sandeep Sangera