Curriculum & Pedagogy (C&P)
PhD, MA, MEd
Meet & Greet
Thursday May 14, 2020
C&P Flexibility

Exceptional courses: Enjoy courses that investigate different aspects of teaching and learning. Explore courses in aboriginal education, equity and diversity issues, educational technology, curriculum, environmental education and more.

7 Program Emphases: Complete 3 courses in an Emphasis for additional qualification

Flexible course selection and scheduling: Design a program that meets your needs. Choose from courses, both within the program and from other programs in OISE.

Pursue your coursework face to face or online: Courses are offered year-round, day and evenings, with many courses offered online.

Collaborative Specializations: Interested in interdisciplinary study? UofT offers collaborative specializations which involve the cooperation of two or more graduate units (i.e Departments, programs, or centres).

Research Centres: OISE's research centres engage students and faculty across departmental boundaries and host a variety of talks and events
7 Program Emphases:
Just complete 3 courses on approved list
