OPAL: Play Observation & Reflection

Remember:
- Be descriptive and detailed: Include environment, weather, ages, location
- Be factual: Avoid assumptions or interpretations
- Complete as soon after observing play as possible
- Remember to share your reflections with peers

What are you seeing?

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

What are you hearing?

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

How are you feeling?

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

Did anything surprise you?

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________

__________________________________________________________