Call for applications to CIE Editorial Board

Critical Intersections in Education invites graduate students at OISE/UT to submit applications to join the 2016-2017 editorial board. There are two positions available for new editorial board members, and we are looking for individuals from diverse backgrounds who have or want to develop experience in reviewing, publishing and disseminating scholarly research to join our team.

About the journal:
Critical Intersections in Education is an open access, peer-reviewed journal run by graduate students from the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education at the University of Toronto (OISE/UT). This journal provides a critical and interdisciplinary forum for analysis and engagement with topics and issues in education. Critical Intersections in Education publishes both scholarly articles and submissions that go beyond traditional forms of academic publication to challenge and inspire the educational community. For more information about the journal, we invite you to access our website at: http://jps.library.utoronto.ca/index.php/cie/index

About being an editorial board member:
Editorial board members are responsible for participating actively in facilitating the process of reviewing and publishing manuscripts, including seeking new submissions, recruiting reviewers, and communicating with authors. Editorial board members are also responsible for promoting the journal and communicating with the graduate student community at OISE and across Canada. Board meetings are held once a month, and more frequently closer to publication dates. The time commitment for members of the editorial board is about 8-10 hours per month. Editorial terms will be one year in length, with the possibility to renew for an additional term. Terms will commence August 1, 2016. All editors must be registered OISE/UT students.

How to apply:
Interested applicants are invited to submit a copy of their curriculum vitae (cv), and a one-page statement of interest to the current editorial board for consideration. The statement should summarize your interest in joining the board, experience in publishing/reviewing scholarly research, and describe your area of expertise.

Application submission deadline: midnight, Friday, June 21st, 2016

Please submit your application by email to: critical.intersections@utoronto.ca
Successful candidates will be notified by: Friday, July 5th, 2016

Best Regards,
Critical Intersections in Education Board
Recruitment for reviewers for Critical Intersections in Education Journal

Critical Intersections in Education Journal publishes manuscripts that provide a critical and interdisciplinary forum for analysis and engagement with topics and issues in education. We publish both scholarly articles and submissions that go beyond traditional forms of academic publication to challenge and inspire the educational community.

Please send the enquiries to our email at: critical.intersections@utoronto.ca

Register as a reviewer through the online submission system at: jps.library.utoronto.ca/index.php/cie/index

Participation in the peer-review process is essential to the success and reputation of our journal. The reviewers and editors will determine whether the manuscripts are of quality and significance to the field of education.

The journal looks for research and scholarship that ultimately have an impact on education both nationally and internationally. Reviewers are also encouraged to promote the journal by submitting their own manuscripts for review; recommending the journal to other potential authors and readers; and by communicating constructive feedback to authors.

Reviewers must have knowledge of APA 6th edition, have a strong interest working with our scholarly journal, and work accurately to the deadlines.

Best Regards,
CIE Editorial Board
