

Dr. Anne C. Charles

Professor, School of Liberal Studies and Communications, Conestoga College Institute of Technology and Advanced Learning.

Anne is currently a professor at Conestoga College ITAL where she teaches courses in Political Science and Public Administration, Science, Technology and Society, and Social Problems.

Anne holds a Ph.D. from the University of Toronto, an MSc. in Politics and Sociology from the University of London, and an undergraduate degree from the University of Westminster (PCL). Anne has both private sector and academic research experience. Her academic research interests include theory and conceptual frameworks for policy analysis, and higher education. Her doctoral research, "Policy Windows and Changing Arrangements: An Analysis of the Policy Process Leading to the Ontario Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology Act, 2002, focused on policy development and change in Ontario's Colleges of Applied Arts and Technology. <http://hdl.handle.net/1807/29681>

Anne is the current Chair of the Executive Committee of the Institute of Public Administration of Canada, Hamilton Regional Group. She is also serving a term of office on the Board of Directors of the Institute of Public Administration of Canada. Past governance experience includes Guelph-Wellington Women in Crisis (Chair), and Conestoga College (faculty governor).

Anne can be contacted at: acharles@conestogac.on.ca or anne.charles@utoronto.ca