

Dr. Peter Constantinou

Peter Constantinou one of Canada's leading practitioner academics who has worked at senior levels in government, and in the PSE sector as senior administrator and academic. Some appointments include; Researcher with the Royal Commission on Electoral Reform, Senior International Trade Advisor with the Ontario Ministry of Environment and Energy, Chief of Staff to the Ontario Minister of Education and Training, Director of International Projects at Durham College, Special Advisor to the President of the UOIT, and Director of Government Relations at Seneca College. Peter now holds academic appointments at a number of Ontario universities, as well as managing a consulting practice that focuses on executive education and training in both Canada and abroad.

In addition to a Ph.D. in Higher Education, Peter holds a BA (Specialized Honours) in public policy and administration from York University, and an MA in Public Policy and Administration from McMaster University. Peter serves on the Board of the Canadian Society for the Study of Higher Education and Canada's National Ballet School.

Email: peter.constantinou@rogers.com