

Roxana Ng Memorial Scholarship in Equity 2032-2024 Application Form

The Roxana Ng Memorial Scholarship in Equity was established in memory of Professor Roxana Ng. Roxana's extensive scholarship focused on race, gender, and class, immigrant women and garment workers, and embodied learning and decolonizing pedagogy. Generous donations have been made by students, colleagues, and friends, with matching funds provided by the University of Toronto.

It will be awarded to one or more doctoral students in the Department of Leadership, Higher and Adult Education, based on financial need with preference given to students pursuing research on a topic related to gender, race, immigration, and/or community development with a focus on work. Recipients must be registered students in good academic standing during the 2023-2024 academic year and must have a demonstrated financial need based on the University's criteria.

Value: Based on the accrued annual income (approximately $10,000) which can be divided among multiple recipients

Application Deadline: February 3, 2024
