ACKNOWLEDGING FIRST PEOPLES

We wish to acknowledge this land on which the University of Toronto operates. For thousands of years it has been the traditional land of the Huron-Wendat, the Seneca, and the Mississaugas of the Credit. This land is still the home to many Indigenous people from across Turtle Island and we are grateful to have the opportunity to work, study and learn on this land.

FOUR PATHS, ONE JOURNEY

OISE is home to four distinct yet interrelated departments whose broad range of programs reflects how the study of education impacts all areas of society. Through our many programs, specializations and research opportunities, students can customize their learning experience while discovering entirely new fields and passions.

APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT (APHD)

The Department of Applied Psychology and Human Development offers five programs that focus on basic and applied research in the areas of human development, clinical and counselling psychology, educational psychology, special education and teaching.

CURRICULUM, TEACHING AND LEARNING (CTL)

The Department of Curriculum, Teaching and Learning is the largest department at OISE and is home to three programs: Curriculum and Pedagogy, Language and Literacies Education, and Teaching. Each of these programs focus on furthering academic scholarship and professional practice.

LEADERSHIP, HIGHER AND ADULT EDUCATION (LHAE)

The Department of Leadership, Higher and Adult Education offers three programs: Adult Education and Community Development, Educational Leadership and Policy, and Higher Education. These three programs focus on education as it occurs at the elementary, secondary, higher and adult education levels.

SOCIAL JUSTICE EDUCATION (SJE)

The Department of Social Justice Education offers a multi- and interdisciplinary program that provides students with critical understandings of the social, historical, cultural, political, economic and ethical contexts of education, broadly conceived.

“The mentorship and experiential opportunities I accessed at OISE have been invaluable in helping me to develop my understanding of the roles I play in our secondary and post-secondary systems.”

TWELVE DEGREE PROGRAMS— COUNTLESS OPTIONS

A degree from OISE is globally respected, it is recognition that you’re seeking change and impact, not just a title. Whether you’re a teacher or an educational professional in the field, OISE degrees offer a unique platform for expanding your horizons towards an entirely new career and new life opportunities.

MASTER OF EDUCATION (MEd)

The MEd degrees are ideal for the professional development of those already engaged in a career related to education. These programs offer flexible academic and professional learning opportunities.

MASTER OF ARTS (MA)

The MA degrees are suitable for those who wish to pursue advanced study, research and analysis. Students interested in a research career or completing doctoral studies typically undertake MA programs.

MASTER OF TEACHING (MT)

The MT degree combines teacher qualification with advanced study of educational theory and the opportunity to conduct research.

DOCTOR OF EDUCATION (EdD)

The EdD degrees are optimal for the professional development of practitioners. This credential is highly valued by academic leaders and allows senior and emerging leaders to explore meaningful connections between research and applied practice in sectors connected to education.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY (PhD)

The PhD degrees are for those wishing to pursue advanced study, conduct original research and contribute to the advancement of knowledge.

“Being able to examine how theory and practice influence one another has been highly influential in how I think about and approach critical issues in education.”

ATHENA TASSIS

MT 2021 / CTL
Teaching and Technology

Emerging Professional In Learner Experience 2021 with the Digital Scholarship Unit at UTSC Library

When she applied to OISE, Athena Tassis recounts, “I had written ‘I want to become an exceptional educator.’ But having finished my journey here, I’ve gained and learned so much more.”

Athena wants to be a changemaker. In her time at OISE, she’s become someone who can think critically about what it means to be a teacher, and she’s also become more aware of how she can bring change to the educational landscape.

“OISE’s Black Studies focus stream has been a tremendous blessing to me just for the simple fact that I am surrounded by people who are brilliant, creative, communal, encouraging, and want to push the envelope of academia to a place where community is not excluded.”

MARCUS SINGLETON

MEd 2019 / SJE

Graduation Coach for Black Students
Toronto District School Board (TDSB)

Marcus prefers a classroom where there’s no hierarchy structure, “where the classroom can be transformed into a community of learners where we – the teacher and students – can learn together.”

TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAMS

OISE is home to exemplary graduate teacher education programs where students can delve deeply into multiple domains of research.

Teaching excellence and scholarly research are the mutually reinforcing pillars of our teaching programs, the Master of Teaching, and the Master of Arts in Child Study and Education. Candidates are prepared to become outstanding teachers and leaders who consult, critique, create, and mobilize educational research. They have the opportunity to complete practicums in local school boards and within our laboratory school where teaching practices and learning opportunities are anchored in inquiry, developmental readiness, and emerging research. As a community, our faculty, students and graduates share a deep commitment to the building of a more just, equitable and sustainable world.

Doctor of Philosophy (PhD)	$6,210*	$2,600.28	$8,810.28

*Note: These tables show the cost of tuition and fees for one year of study. The minimum cost of a master’s program is based on the official full-time program length, which is listed on our website uoft.me/OISEtuition. Completing your program faster than the specified program length could result in paying a balance of degree fee that rounds out the minimum cost. Fees in future years may be higher.

‡Since Fall 2018, international OISE PhD students pay domestic tuition rates. International students are still required to pay UHIP. This new international tuition structure does not apply to any other OISE graduate programs.

†Note: International tuition is set at a level that more closely reflects the true cost of educating students. The Ontario Government subsidizes domestic tuition with taxpayer funds.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Financial planning and general financial aid counselling is available to admitted students. Depending on your program of study, there are a number of sources of financial support for OISE students:

ON-CAMPUS EMPLOYMENT

Graduate Assistantships, Summer Graduate Assistantships, Research & Development Graduate Assistantships, Teaching Assistantships and Work Study.

uoft.me/oisemoneymatters

FINANCIAL AID AND AWARDS

Ontario Student Assistance Program (and other provinces’ student support programs), OISE and University of Toronto scholarships, awards, bursaries and grants.

uoft.me/oisefinancialaid

OISE GRADUATE FUNDING PACKAGE

OISE offers funding packages to students in full-time PhD programs and non-professional MA programs. OISE’s graduate funding package is designed to provide students in the funded cohort a minimum level of support to offset the cost of graduate education. Last year the funding package was around $25,000 including tuition.

THE NEXT STEP IS YOURS

APPLY IN 5 EASY STEPS

1. CHOOSE YOUR PROGRAM

Browse through this viewbook or visit uoft.me/oise-PF.

2. REVIEW ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

Admission is competitive and requirements vary from program to program. Check specific requirements for your program of choice: uoft.me/oiserequirements.

Additional information for international applicants is available: uoft.me/oiseinternationalapplicant.

3. PREPARE SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS

Start your application at uoft.me/oiseadmissions Begin preparing before the November deadlines to ensure your application and supporting documents are ready.

4. APPLY ONLINE VIA GRADAPP

Complete your application online and pay the non-refundable application fee ($235). Your fee allows you to apply to up to three programs at OISE.

The main application deadlines for programs starting in September 2023 are:

November 1, 2022 (First consideration deadline for funded PhD and full-time MA).

November 15, 2022 (Final deadline for funded PhD and full-time MA, and main deadline for part-time programs, flex-time programs, professional programs, and teacher education).

Enter all required information via the online admissions application: admissions.sgs.utoronto.ca/apply.

5. SUBMIT SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS

Supporting documents include transcripts, letters of reference, and résumé (unofficial electronic transcripts are required when applying and official are required only if you are admitted). Some programs request additional supporting documents.

Submit all required supporting documents and application questions by November 15 to guarantee full consideration. If November 15 is not possible, the absolute latest date to submit all required supporting documents (and answer application questions) is ten business days after you have completed the online admissions application (including payment).
