Being able to examine how theory and practice influence one another has been highly influential in how I think about and approach critical issues in education.

ATHENA TASSIS
MT 2021 / CTL
Teaching and Technology

Emerging Professional In Learner Experience 2021 with the Digital Scholarship Unit at UTSC Library

When she applied to OISE, Athena Tassis recounts, “I had written ‘I want to become an exceptional educator.’ But having finished my journey here, I’ve gained and learned so much more.”

Athena wants to be a changemaker. In her time at OISE, she’s become someone who can think critically about what it means to be a teacher, and she’s also become more aware of how she can bring change to the educational landscape.

APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT (APHD)
The Department of Applied Psychology and Human Development offers five programs that focus on basic and applied research in the areas of human development, clinical and counselling psychology, educational psychology, special education and teaching.

LEADERSHIP, HIGHER AND ADULT EDUCATION (LHAE)
The Department of Leadership, Higher and Adult Education offers three programs: Adult Education and Community Development, Educational Leadership and Policy, and Higher Education. The programs focus on education as it occurs at the elementary, secondary, higher and adult education levels.

CURRICULUM, TEACHING AND LEARNING (CTL)
The Department of Curriculum, Teaching and Learning is the largest department at OISE and is home to three programs: Curriculum and Pedagogy, Language and Literacies Education, and Teaching.

SOCIAL JUSTICE EDUCATION (SJE)
The Department of Social Justice Education offers a multi- and interdisciplinary program that provides students with critical understandings of the social, historical, cultural, political, economic and ethical contexts of education, broadly conceived.
A degree from OISE is globally-respected; recognition that you’re seeking change and impact, not just a title. Whether you’re a teacher or an educational professional in the field, OISE degrees offer a unique platform for expanding your horizons towards an entirely new career and new life opportunities.

MASTER OF EDUCATION (MEd)

The MEd degrees are ideal for the professional development of those already engaged in a career related to education. These programs offer flexible academic and professional learning opportunities.

DOCTOR OF EDUCATION (EdD)

The EdD degrees are optimal for the professional development of practitioners.

MASTER OF ARTS (MA)

The MA degrees are suitable for those who wish to pursue advanced study, research and analysis. Students interested in a research career or completing doctoral studies typically undertake MA programs.

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY (PhD)

The PhD degrees are for those wishing to pursue advanced study, conduct original research and contribute to the advancement of knowledge.

MASTER OF TEACHING (MT)

The MT degree combines teacher qualification with advanced study of educational theory and the opportunity to conduct research.

FACTS

- 12 Graduate programs to choose from
- 10 Canada Research Chairs and Endowed Chairs

*Note: These tables show the cost of tuition and fees for one year of study. The minimum cost of a master’s program is based on the official full-time program length, which is listed on our website. Completing your program faster than the specified program length could result in paying a balance of degree fee that rounds out the minimum cost. Fees in future years may be higher.

‡Since Fall 2018, international OISE PhD students pay domestic tuition rates. International students are still required to pay UHIP. This new international tuition structure does not apply to any other OISE graduate programs.

FINANCIAL SUPPORT

Financial planning and general financial aid counselling is available to admitted students. Depending on your program of study, there are a number of sources of financial support for OISE students:

ON-CAMPUS EMPLOYMENT

Graduate Assistantships, Summer Graduate Assistantships, Research & Development Graduate Assistantships, Teaching Assistantships and Work Study.

The application deadline is November 15. Some programs may remain open until all spots are filled.

APPLY IN 5 EASY STEPS

1. CHOOSE YOUR PROGRAM
Browse through this viewbook or visit [uoft.me/oiseprograms].

You can apply to just one, or up to three OISE programs in your application.

2. REVIEW ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS
Admission is competitive and requirements vary from program to program. Check specific requirements for your program of choice: [uoft.me/oiserequirements].

Additional information for international applicants is available: [uoft.me/oiseinternationalapplicant].

3. PREPARE SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS
Start your application at [uoft.me/oiseadmissions]. Begin preparing before the November 15 deadline to ensure your application and supporting documents are ready.

4. APPLY VIA THE ONLINE ADMISSIONS APPLICATION
Enter all required information via the online admissions application ([admissions.sgs.utoronto.ca/apply]) and pay the non-refundable application fee ($235).

5. SUBMIT SUPPORTING DOCUMENTS
Supporting documents include transcripts, letters of reference, and résumé (unofficial electronic transcripts are required when applying and official are required only if you are admitted). Some programs request additional supporting documents. You will also need to provide answers to program-specific application questions.

Submit all required supporting documents (and answer application questions) by November 15 to guarantee full consideration. If November 15 is not possible, the absolute latest date to submit all required supporting documents (and answer application questions) is seven business days after you have completed the online admissions application (including payment).
