Inside OISE @ Home Edition
July 9, 2020

Inside OISE @ Home Edition will be taking a break for the summer and will return in September. Wishing everyone the joy of summer time outdoors with family and friends. Be well and have a terrific holiday wherever you are!

Please continue to share your updates with us! We want to know what's happening with the OISE community. Be well and stay well!

In the News

Congratulations Graduates!

From Parliament Hill to Kim's Convenience, prominent Canadians congratulate #UofT’s class of 2020. #OISEGrad20

Click Here To Read More

OISE's New Indigenous Education Research Centre

The Indigenous Educational Research Centre will provide a key space for Indigenous specific research across OISE – where Indigenous faculty and students can meet, work on research projects, and engage in critical conversations about their work in a culturally aligned safe space.

OISE News article by Perry King

Click Here To Read More
Faculty Book Spotlight

Controversy in Science Museums, by CTL OISE Professor Erminia Pedretti & alum Dr. Ana Maria Navas Iannini, examines and re-imagines how museums and science centres can create exhibitions that embrace criticality & visitor agency.

Click Here For More Info

A Warm Welcome To...

Congratulations to Dr. David Green, who will join OISE on September 1, 2020. A recipient of the University of Toronto Provost’s Postdoctoral Fellowship, Dr. Green joins Dr. Abby Goldstein, Canada Research Chair in The Psychology of Emerging Adulthood and her research team. Raised in Jamaica, Dr. Green completed his doctoral studies in the Department of Family Relations and Human Development at the University of Guelph in 2018. Dr. Green will further his dissertation work Differential Pathways of Fathering and Fatherlessness in Afro-Caribbean Families, focusing on parenting and family relations, two areas critical to Professor Goldstein’s work.

A Digital World

Microsoft Office Teams Update

Microsoft has released new features to improve your Teams video conferencing experience. These updates cover features such as new background effects, downloadable attendance lists and a larger nine-person video grid.

Click Here To Read More

Continuing OISE’s Mission in Alternate Ways

Education Commons have created a digital contingency preparedness resource as the OISE community continues to teach and work in different ways.

Click Here To Learn More

University of Toronto Libraries Launch RemoteLab Service

Beginning July 6, 2020, the University of Toronto Libraries began offering remote access to student computers in the Computer Access Facilities. This service is intended to provided access to the software and services normally provided via the computers in the Libraries. Students, faculty and staff are eligible to use this service.

Click Here to Access Remote Lab
Upcoming Events & Webinars

Gardening Webinars and more in July!

Did you know that the OISE Community Learning Garden is growing more than plants this season? Join the gardening team in July for two online webinars that feature gardening experts to help develop your gardening knowledge and skills wherever you might be. Join master gardener Lorraine Johnson for a webinar on creating native plant gardens on July 9; and Indigenous educator Isaac Crosby for a tour of his garden on July 16. Details and registration are found HERE. Also check out recent growth in the OISE Learning Garden with regular updates on our ‘Down & Dirty’ blog.

Exciting Opportunities

Session Lecturer Positions Available

There are currently 123 jobs available for sessional lecturers looking to teach at OISE this Fall. From curriculum and pedagogy to educational administration, find your new role today!

Click Here To Learn More

Have a story you would like featured Inside OISE @ Home? Share it with us!

More ways to connect

- Subscribe to our Alumni & Friends Newsletter
- Learn about new academic publications
- Subscribe to the ORSS Student Services newsletter
- View all upcoming virtual events

CONTACT US